

Ms. Sansom is a spoken soul poet, commercial actress, internet radio & tv host, event host, speaker, and poetry teacher. She is known as Natasha "Beautiful Thought" and is also the producer & host of a 2nd Saturdays event called, The Peaceful Poetic Place. It is a monthly Christian poetry and music series which celebrates 4 yrs., Aug. 2016. She also produces & hosts 1st Fridays "Beautiful Thought" Open Mic at Detroit Vintage Coffee & Tea.

Ms. Sansom, "Beautiful Thought", is the winner of the 2011 National Poetry Award - Christian Poet & Spoken Word Artist of the Year and was a nominee in 2013. She has performed with international jazz artists Randy Scott & Lin Rountree. She opened for gospel rap artists, Da Truth and Andy Mineo. Oct. 2015, she also opened for Poets4ChristMinistry poets, Ezekiel, Preston Perry, Jackie Hill & Janette Ikz.

She is an advocate for domestic violence survivors and strongly believes in benevolence. She is a member of Liberty City Church of Christ in Detroit where she is active with the Helping Hands Ministry. She has a Masters in Human Services and a Bachelor's in Social Work/Psychology. She has been teaching poetry to youth and adults for a few years. In February 2016, "Beautiful Thought" released her debut EP titled, "Spoken Soul I: Perfect Imperfections". She is a home school mother to a creative and talented son who loves to sing and dance and is a local commercial actor.

Website: mybeautifulthoughts.net