

Donna Burgess is a homeschool mom to three adult children. She has been involved in C.O.V.E. High School Theatre since 2012 when her daughters enrolled in the class. She has been involved in many theatre experiences from churches to homeschool co-ops and hopes to instill her love of theatre to the students in the class.