

Nancy O'Sullivan – She is a graduate of Redford Union High School, has a B.S. in Biology from Wayne State University, and has a Ph.D. in Immunology and Microbiology from Wayne State University School of Medicine. With experience with different audiences, she has taught medical students, junior high Sunday school classes, and adult-teen creation science series. Living in Redford since she was 8 years old, Nancy is married to Russell, is a member of Covenant Community Church, and shares her home with three rabbits and a parrot.