

Steve Norman is a homeschool father of two, one who has graduated and is attending college and another who is in high school. He has a B.B.A. from Eastern Michigan University, a M.Div. from Western Theological Seminary, and is the pastor of Crossroads Church in Livonia. Steve has a strong background in science and math and has taught science labs for small groups of homeschool middle school and high school students in his home for the past nine years. He is active in the homeschool community and currently serves as Chaplain for Trail Life Troop 711.