Text: American Government (By Glen Krutz) Available for download at openstax.org https://d3bxy9euw4e147.cloudfront.net/oscms-prodcms/media/documents/AmericanGovernment-OP_xdiETGS.pdf
Description
The fundamentals of government on the national, state and local levels will be examined, including the three branches of government, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship, and the development and role of political parties. This course provides an analytical perspective on government and politics in the United States. This course involves both the study of general concepts used to interpret U.S. politics and the analysis of specific case studies.
Homework / Expectations / Other Info
Students will be expected to do assigned reading outside of class and complete assignments from those readings that will prepare the student for in class discussion. There will also be 2 tests over the course of the class as well as an in-class presentation. Students will also be assigned short writing assignments, 2-3 over the course of the class.

*Class Fees and Instructor Fees are per semester unless otherwise indicated in the Other Information. Materials fee is non-refundable.

* Credit Hours: COVE does not issue high school credits. These are suggested credit hours to be assigned by the parents. Suggested grade is given by teachers. Final grade assignment is the responsibility of the parent.
