Required Materials (To Be Supplied by Family)
There will be a required parent meeting both semesters. Some costumes and props will need to be purchased from participating families to be used in the production. Snack donation during tech days and production week and longer rehearsals Because these are middle school kids, parent participation during production week is requested & required for tech days.
Description
Production Week: Mon-Sat. Mar. 30 - April 4, 2021			Dress Rehearsal: April 2, 2021			PERFORMANCE: April 3 & 4, 2021
The first semester will be spent learning about theatre and how to act on stage. We will learn about the importance of tech roles and how to perform them. We will discuss and learn how to cold read lines and audition for parts. We will spend some time exploring different theatre genres including comedy, drama, mystery/suspense. We will be auditioning for roles for our production, which will be decided after class size and genders are determined. Roles will be assigned based on auditions. * Starting 2nd semester, we will be rehearsing for our play in April. Beginning at the end of Jan, 2021, we will add 30 minutes to our Tues practice time(4-5:30pm) Starting at the end of February, we will be adding 1 hour to our Tues practice time (4-6pm) Some Thurs practices maybe required for the leads and students who are struggling with lines. (TBD if we would meet at COVE or over Zoom)
Homework / Expectations / Other Info
Line Memorization will be required. Small acting assignments are given and will be performed in class Although this is a fun class, students will be required to sit and be quiet for periods of time. Expect to be busier as we move toward production week.

*Materials Fees and Instructor Fees are per semester unless otherwise indicated in the Other Information.

* Credit Hours: COVE does not issue high school credits. These are suggested credit hours to be assigned by the parents. Suggested grade is given by teachers. Final grade assignment is the responsibility of the parent.
