Description
This course is a survey of world events from the early beginnings of civilization through those of the modern world. Themes addressed in every unit include those aligned with geography, economics, government, citizenship, culture, science, and technology. In addition, such important concepts as the development of constitutionalism and global relations are examined.
Homework / Expectations / Other Info
Students will be expected to do assigned reading outside of class (approximately 30-40 pages per week) and complete assignments from those readings that will prepare the student for in class discussion. There will also be 6-8 tests over the course of the class. Students will also be assigned short writing assignments, 2-3 over the course of the class.

*Materials Fees and Instructor Fees are per semester unless otherwise indicated in the Other Information. Materials fee is non-refundable.

* Credit Hours: COVE does not issue high school credits. These are suggested credit hours to be assigned by the parents. Suggested grade is given by teachers. Final grade assignment is the responsibility of the parent.
