Description
These two classes are taught together. Students will hear instruction for both, but may choose to focus their work on one or the other. Cartooning: There is a method to the madness of cartooning and it's a fun skill to master. What it takes is a lot of practice. We will work on character development, composition of comic strips and comic books. Art is fun, please join me. Drawing: In using my popular "Taking a Line for a walk" approach we will explore the elements of art and the principles of design in various drawing mediums, pencils, charcoal, pastels and more. Students will be required to keep a sketchbook that will be provided. Homework will be assigned for the sketchbook series.
